AN AMELIA GIRL MINISTER'S BRIDE

Miss Thraves Weds the Rev Pierre Bernard Hill.

'TWAS BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY

Music and Decorations in Keeping With Happy Occasion.

Mattoax Memorial Presbyterian Church, in Ainelia county, was the scene of a beautiful wedding yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when the Rev. Plerse Bernard Hill, of Richmond, and M'ss Ellen Lee Thraves, of Belona, Va., were beautiful prayried.

happily married.

The church was decorated, with dalsies and ferns, which were banked in profusion within the chancel, while graceful arches were erected over the right and arenes were erected over the right and left sisies at the approach to the altar. The effect was charming and thoroughly in keeping with the happy scene, as the bridal party approached the altar to the laspiring strains of Mendelssohn's wed-ding march, from the church organ, pre-sided over by Miss Lena Rudd, of Pow-hatan.

sided over by Miss Lena Rudd, of Powhatan.

The groom, handsomely attired in the conventional black, entered the church by the right alsie, accompanied by dia bust man, Mr. Addr Sanders, of Richmond. At the same time the ushers entered by the left alsie. These were Mr. A. W. Goddin, Dr. M. B. Rudd and Rev. W. H. Stuart, of Richmond, and Mr. Willam B. Thraves, of Belona, Misses Bertan B. Thraves, and approached the altar by the left alsie, scattering daisless in the pathway of the bride, who entered the church, accompanied by the maid of honor, her sister, Miss Annie Thraves. The bride was gracefully attired in a plain suit of white batiste, with bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of illies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a suit of wash roses.

Recutiful Cassworns.

Beautiful Ceremony.

Beautiful Ceremony.

The bride was met by the groom beneath the left arch, and was given away by her brother, Mr. W. B. Thraves. The happy couple approached the altar, where the officiating minister, the Rev. Dr. F. T. MoFaden, of the First Presbyterian Church, Richmond, awaited them. Then, as the notes of Mendelssohn ceased and the assembled witnesses sat in silent expectancy, Mrs. H. T. Meloney, of Richmond, sang "O, Promise Me." Dr. McFaden then, in an impressive manner, united the two estimable young people in the holy bonds.

The bridal party was preceded from the church by the flower girls, strewing roses, while the organ again pealed forth in the joyous strains of Lohengrin.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. John T. Thraves, of Amelia, and has many friends in Richmond, having made her home in the city for some months.

The groom is a mative of Richmond, as son of the late Robert Hill, Jr. He was son of the late Robert Hill, Jr. He was educated at Hampden-Sidney College and at Union Theological Seminary, gradualing from the latter institution in May. Mr. and Mrs. Hill arrived in Richmond last night at 7-oclock and left over the Southern Railway at 11:39 for Se Lemout Mountain Preebyterian Churches.

A GRAND OCCASION.

Buckingham People Show Their Pride in Their High School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUCKINGHAM, VA., June 1 .- Not for many a year, with the possible exception of the first Wooldridge and Forbes trial, has there been such an immense gather of the first Wooldridge and Forces trial, has there been such an immense gathering of people at Buckingham Courthouse as assembled here last Tuesday night to attend the High School commencement exercises.

Long before the time for opening the exercises a mass of humanity surged around the front door of the courthouse in which the programme was to be rendered. Early in the night every one of the three hundred seats that had been prepared for the occasion was occupied, and the vestibule and stairways of the building were filled with those who could not secure seats.

A splendid programme, with varying features, was rendered. The opening address was made by Thomas Hall. The fand drill and fancy march, by twelve boys and twelve girls, was also highly attractive. There were a number of recliations, tableaux and singing.

The Home Band, under the direction of Mr. A. C. Spencer, ably assisted by Miss Nannie Moseley and Mrs. T. B. Bondurant, planists, interspersed the exercises with delightful music. All in attendance seemed thoroughly to enjoy the evening and many were the congratulations showered upon Principal E. P. Dahl and his assistant, Mrs. Bondurant, for the successful accomplishment Dahl and his assistant, Mrs. Bondu nt, for the successful accomplishmen of their efforts.

RAVEN SOCIETY.

Students Elected to Membership On Their Scholastic Merits.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 1.—
The following students of the University of Virginia have been elecied to the Raven Society (after Poe's immortal work) for scholastic merit in their respective classes, as applicants for degrees next year:
Law-Thomas Moore Bradley, Jr., Birmingham, Ala: Frank Edmund Braden Burford, Guthrie, Okia: Robert Edward Lee Chumbley, New River, Va.; William West Grant, Jr., Denver, Col.; Leon Maurice Nelson, Richmond, Va.
Medicine—Spencer Pippin Bass, Tarboro, N. C.; William Minor Bryan, Charlottesville, Va.; Thomas James Butter, Lynch-burg, Va.; Charles Magill Fauniteroy, Washington, D. C.; Robert Rosser, Harrodsburg, Ky.; William Winston Snead, Etna Mills, Va.
Academio—Carl Philip Bonn, Louisville, CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 1.

AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

The Leading Insurance Company in New England.

W. W. HARDWICKE, Genl. Agt., RICHMOND, VA.

Has been in Active and Successful Business over 55 years

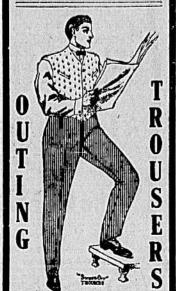

Assets Over 75 Millions.

150 Millions.

Its surplus, by Connecticut Standard, $8,850,426.65.

The Actna Life is organized on the principle of the strongest Banks and Trust Companies by having a large capital stock ($3,000,000) close supervision of those who are financially interested. This gives assurance of safe and economical maragement, thus making it in the

GREENTREE, FASHION'S DICTATOR.

The gentleman wearing our "clothes" is easily detected as he passes by, for they contain that snap, style and general outline of garments not attainable else-

We particularly call attention to the broad concave shoulders, close fitting collar and non-sagable

In short, we are Clothiers, Haberdashers and Hatters to particular followers of that word called Fashion.

MEYER GREENTREE. Men's Outfitter,

Broad, at Sixth Street.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Brilliant Ceremony Takes Place in Hampton Baptist Church.

MISS SCHMELZ THE BRIDE

Elaborate Dinner in Home of Bride Follows the Wedding.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HAMPTON, VA., June 1.-A brilliant wedding took place this afternoon in the Hampton Baptist Church, when Miss Ethel Schmelz, daughter of Banker Henry L. Schmelz, became the bride of Dr. Al-bert Baltzelle, of Marianna, Fla. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Leonidas Rosser.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Henry Lane Schmelz as matron of honor, and by Miss Margaret Schmelz, her sister, as Lane Schmelz as matron of honor, and by Miss Margaret Schmelz, her sister, as maid of honor. The bridesmalds were Misses Ruth Schmelz, Hida Schmelz, Elsie Schmelz, Rose Parramore and Mary McMenamin, all cousins of the bride; Misses Etta Blanchard, Eunice Blanchard and Laura Spencer, of Columbus, Ga.; Miss Elizabeth Camey and Miss Gertrude Armistead, of Churchland, Va.; Miss Lee, of New York, and Miss Poyer, of Roanoke, Va.

Dr. Baltzelle's best man was Captain Baltzelle, and the ushers were Messrs, James Camey and Henry Kern, of Churchland; George Reid and Worthy Semple, of Norfolk; Captain Bishops, U.S. A., stationed at Fort Monroe; Messrs, Nelson Groome, Robert Hudgins and Howard Collier, of Hampton; Allan D. Jones, Newport News; Clarence Moomaw, Cloverdale; Dr. Benjamin Moomaw, Roanoke, and Captain Albert A. Starbird, of Fort Castle.

Miss Schmelz was gowned in a hand some costume of lace over chiffon and taffeta and carried a splendid bouquet of illies of the valley. Her matron of honor wore white satin and carried peonies, while the maid of honor was dressed in pink crepe de chine and carried pink peonies. The bridesmalds were gowned in white Brussels net, with pink figured roses over white taffeta, and wore pink girdles. They wore white tulle "Mother Goose" hats and carried in their hands pink peonies and asparagus ferns.

An elaborate wedding dinner followed the ceremony in the home of the bride's purents. After an extended bridal tour the young couple will proceed to Marianna, Fia., where Dr. Baltzelle has a lucrative practice. He is a graduate of Tulane University.

The bride is the daughter of Banker Henry L. Schmelz, one of the best known financiers in this section of the State. He was the first president of the Jamestown Exposition Company, but on account of his private affairs, found it impossible to continue in that position. He was at one time president of the Virginia Bankers' Association.

ELEGANT WEDDING.

Miss Crutchfield the Bride of Mr. John Minor Gatewood.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 1.—In handsome old St. George's Episcopal Church at six o'clock this morning, a Church at six o'clock this morning, a wedding of prominence was solemnized, when Miss Elizabeth French Crutchfield, daughter of Mrs. E. M. Crutchfield, daughter of Mrs. Desembler of Mrs. John Minor Gatewood, formerly of West Point, Va., now of Boston, Mass., in the prespector of the church, performed the ceremony. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr., Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. Engineering—Francis Olin Richey, Fattis Samuel Baker Woods, Jr. Charlottesville, Va. En

MISS ELLEN LEE THRAVES.

This charming Amelia girl became the bride yesterday of Rev. Pierre Bernard Hill.

Luck, Roanoke, Va. Editor-in-Chief Corks and Curls—Charles Senff McVeigh, Richmond, Va.

Fatally Kicked.

(Special to The Times-Disputch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., June 1.—News re-ceived in the city late to-night save meagre details of the serious if not fatal meagre details of the serious ir not tatta kicking of Stewart Terry, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. W. L. Terry, a well to do farmer, by a horse to-night. At midnight the lad was unconscious, and every effort of several attending physicians to revive him had been in vain. It seems that the boy was at work in his father's stables shortly after nightfall, when one of the horses kicked him twice. One of the blows struck him in the head and the second in the breast. Mr. Terry lives in Campbell county, several miles from Lynchburg.

Fall Off a Bridge.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch, Chirfon Forgog, VA., June 1.—Harvey Hall, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hall, who resides in South Clifton, while crossing the old Richmond and Alleghany bridge a day or so ago fell down, and in atempting to get up rolled on the bridge, a distance of thirty feet. He fell upon a pile of rocks and fractured his skull and sustained other serious interest. At this time he is improving and the attending physician says that he will are successful to the Times-Dispatch.)

Emmie Thomas, of Richmond; Miss Nancy Cook, of Richmond; Miss Mary Gatewood, of West Point; Misses Eva Brancroft Tyler, Nannie Fickier, Margaret Crutchfield, Mercer Crutchfield, Lena Rowe, Frances Taylor, of Fredericksburg. Ushers-Messers, John Parrish, of Richmond; Joel Perrin, of Richmond; Robert McCandlish, of Richmond; James E. Bradley, of Bailtimore; John Chew, of Sewickley, Pa.; John M. W. Green, C. O'Conor Goolrick and R. H. Carmichael, of Fredericksburg. Two nieces of the bride, little Misses Elizabeth Russell and Elizabeth Carrington, were the ribbon holders. The bride wore an elegant costume of white moire chifforn and lace over of white moire chifforn and lace over chiffon and silk, tulio vall and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids wore blue-flowered mulle, white lace hats and parasols, Following the ceremony an elegant roception was held at the home of the brode's sister, Mrs. E. R. Carrington, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gatewood left on the north-bound train for a bridal trip,

of cure that Paine's Celery Compound has for nervous results or nervous diseases. Its formula has been sent to every registered physician in the Unit of States, it is constantly prescribed by them. They know that it is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians known in the annals of American medicine—Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University. Gave her immediate relief

"I moved this spring and the extra amount of labor with irregular meals caused me to feel in worn out, depleted and nervous condition. I had headaches every day and felt unable to attend to my regular work. One of my neighbors advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound, and I am pleased to say that it afforded me immediate relief, rejuvenating my entire system. I have not been without it in my home since, and feel very grateful for the results obtained from its use."—Yours very truly, Anna Barrett, 1299 Sheridan Road, Chicago, Ill.

Do You Want New Vitality?

Do you feel the need of a good spring tonic-a medicine to purify the blood—to give you vitality—to strengthen you—to make your entire system well, active, and vigorous?

If your tired and worn out nerves must have a tonic, then-use a prescription that has proved its curing qualities in over a million cases—a remedy that has had steadfast friends nearly a score of years in every city and village in

No medicine, no prescription, no treatment has ever been discovered that has the marvelous, positive and direct power

Try one bottle—see how much better you feel

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic

A druggist who wanted to retain his customers would not give them counterfeit money in change—but some druggists do not seem to know that it is just as dishonest and just as bad business to sell you a counterfeit of the genuine Paine's Celery Compound.

There are no genuine Celery Compounds except Paine's Celery Compound—all others are counterfeits and are unsafe, fraudulent, unknown imitations. See that your druggist treats you honestly. The honest druggists are just as anxious as you to give and receive honest treatment.

large assemblage of friends and relatives, Rov. Dallas Tucker, the rector of the church, officialing.

The church was very tastefully decorated with potted Boston ferns, boughs of the beaugful shell-tinted mountain, ivy and daisies "mining a flowry background within the chancel for the impressive service of matrimony. Many electric lights shed a mellow glow upon the fair scene. Professor W. Saunders Adams, of Lynchburg, gave a delightful organ recital prior to the arrival of the bridal party and rendered the wedding marches and played softly during the ceremony.

The ushers advanced first and took positions on either side of the rostrum. They were in full evening dress and wore boutonniers of lilles of the valley. They were Messrs. Hans solding and H. T. Nicholas, of Lynchburg: Robert L. Scott, of Norfolk; Miles Pragsatt, of Roanoke; S. S. Lambeth, Jr., T. W. Richardson, O. C. Bell and E. C. Burks, of Bedford City.

Then came the matron of honor, Mrs.

S. S. Lambeth, Jr., T. W. Richardson, O. C. Bell and E. C. Burks, of Bedford City,
Then came the matron of honor, Mrs. O. C. Bell, arrayed in a lovely costume of figured heliotrope silk mulle with trimmings of German val lace, satin girdle of two shades of heliotrope and wearing a coronet of heliotrope; in her hand she carried a bouquet of heliotrope with long ribbons of smilax; after whom came the little maid of honor and sister of the bride. Miss Ellaoise Berry, in a lovely frock of white silk, white shoes and hose and carrying white roses. Last came the bride, very charming and lovely, clad in whe exquisite creation of white creps and German Val lace, over white taffeta with white girdle; over the fair form fell in filmy folds the long veil of tulle. In her hand she held a shower bouquet of illies of the valley. She was escorted by her father, Mr. James M. Berry, to the foot of the rostrum, where she was met by the groom and his best man and brother, Mr. Edmund Miles, of Pittsburg, Pa, both in full dress. Then the betrothal service took place. The remainder of the ceremony was performed in front, of the chancel.

The party left the church in reversed order and repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry, where a reception was held to the relatives and immediate friends of the two families.

The house was beautifully decked with where a receptor tives and immediate friends of the two families.

The house was beautifully decked with roses and other flowers, upon which many lights glowed with chasting effect. These, with the beautiful evening costumes of the ladles, and evening dress of the ladles, and evening dress of the men, all conspired to form a memorable scene, of which the fair young bride was the center. Tempting and the proposed and the propo

CASTORIA For Infants and Children, The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of hat H. Fletcher.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRI-CAL ENGINEERS, ASHEVILLE, N. C., JUNE 19-24, 1905, For the above occasion, Southern Ratiway will sell very low rate tickets to Asheville and return, from all points or is lines. For detailed information, apply of the Southern Railway to any agent of the Southern Railway, C. W. WESTBURY, D. P. A., 520 East Main Street.

the Chartt Pletchers Bears the

ATLANTIC COAST LINE R. R. SUNDAY
EXCURSION BETWEEN RICHMOND AND PETERSBURG.
40 CENTS-ROUND TRIP-40 CENTS.
Tickets good on all regular trains limited to date of sale.

Bears the Bignature Chart St. Flitching

SUNDAY OUTINGS IN THE COUNTRY ON THE LINE OF THE C. & O. Half-fare tickets sold for Sunday morning local trains, returning in the evening. the The Kind You Have Always Bought journey under such auspicious circum

journey under such auspicious circumstances.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles left on the midnight east-bound train for an extended journey to Nova Scotla and other points.

The going away gown of the bride was a very handsome blue silk walking costume, with hat and gloves to correspond. The bride is a very accomplished, handsome young lady, of sparkling wit and brightness and a devote of music, being an exceptionally gifter planist. She is a greatniece of Mr. B. H. Berry, Mrs. James Poindexter and Miss Ophelia Berry, of Richmond.

The groom is a young business man of fine ability, and very successful, who, during his nearly four years residence in Bedford City, has won many friends. Ho is a member of the large and prosperous firm of the Berry, Suhling Tobacco Company, leaf exporters.

Among the guests from other points, who attended the marriage, were Mr. and Mrs. George Miles, of Appomattox, the parents of the groom, and their children; Mrs. Harold O. Smith, of Indianapolis Ind., and Miss Clara Carroll, of Lynchburg, the Indianapolis Ind., and Miss Clara Carroll, of Lynchburg, Mrs. Norton R. Savage, Richmond; Mrs. Harvey Moore, Mrs. Frank Dorsey and Mrs. W. S. Adams, Miss Elizabeth J. Nicholas, Mrs. John L. Castell, Miss Lucy Jackson, Miss Louise Jackson and Mr. W. W. Dickerson, all of Lynchburg.

Richardson-Flippin.

Richardson—Flippin.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., June 1.—The home of Mr. G. R. Flippin, on Cabell Street, in this city, was the scene of a preity wedding this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when his daughter, Miss Susie M., was married to Mr. Charles F. Richardson, of Farmer City, Ill. The bride is an attractive young lady, with a large circle of friends here, and the groom is a traveling man, who covers the State of Missispip and Alabuma for Hancock Brothers, tobacconists, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Mundy, pastor of the Cabell Street Baptist Church.

Dearing-Cyrus.

Dearing—Cyrus.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., June 1.—Mr.

Thomas L. Dearing, of this city, and Miss.

Mary Cyrus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

John W. Cyrus, of Concord Depot, Va., were married last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lavinder, in this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. H. Athey, pastor of the College Hill Baptist Church, in the presence of a large gathering of friends of the contracting parties.

Brauns-Reynolds.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., June 1.—Mr. Otto
C. Brauns and Miss Eva May Reynolds, both of this city, were married yesterday morning at the parsonage of the Cabell Street Baptist Church, in this city, the Rev. J. A. Mundy officialing. The couple were attended by Mr. Van T. Wood and Miss Maude Wright, both of Lynchburg,
Mr. Brauns is a fireman on the Norfolk and Western Railway.

Withers-Jones.

Withers—Jones.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., June 1.—Miss Agnes Jones, oldest daughter of E. K. Jones, a prominent tohacconist of this cty, was married to-night to D. P. Withers, a young attorney of Danville. The marriage was celebrated at the home of the bride, Rev. J. C. Hall, of the Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony.
The groom is a brother of former State
Senator Eugene Withers.

Jett-Howard.

Jett—Howard,
ROANOKE, VA., June 1.—Miss Virginia Howard, daughter of Judge W.
L. Howard, of Floyd, and Dr. Samuel
G, Jett, of Mecklenburg, were married to-day at the home of the cousin of the bride, Mrs. F. Willis Michael, Rev. Arthur Boogher officiality, Miss Litian Pendicton, of Floyd, was the maild of honor, and Dr. C. B. Crute, of Parmville, best man.
The couple left on noon train for Richmond and Washington.

FATHER TURNS TABLES

ON ELOPING COUPLE

WINCHESTER, VA., June 1. George Kerna and Miss Ellzu F. Kerns, members of well known families, were prevented this week from eloping by the bride's father, who consented to a private marriage, but when the young couple went to the parsonage at Gore last night, they were confronted by a big crowd of their friends, who had been gathered by the bride's father, in order to get even.

A rousing reception followed the wedding.

FELL THIRTY FEET THROUGH A BRIDGE

A Lady, Man and Boy Are Bitten By a Mad Dog.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) IRON GATE, June 1.-Mr. J. J. Ear-heart, of Bridgewater, in coming here to heart, of Bridgewater, in coming here to join his (amily met with a painful accident Tuesday night, He arrived in Clifton Forge after dark, and in walking down met a train on the bridge over the Jacksom River. In attempting to step out of the way over to the other track he fell through. The night was dark, and he being a stranger, did not known the distance between the tracks fell about thirty feet, breaking his collar-bone, bruising his leg and arm and breaking three ribs. He is doing well as possible. The appearance of a mad-dog caused a great excitement here yesterday. He bit a colored boy, also Mr. Hodges, and in passing bit several dogs. Mrs. Shaffer, who lives in the extreme end of town, met the dog. struck him with a large stick she was carrying, felling him to the ground. She then ran, but fell, and the dog sprang upon her, biting her three times, taking a piece of flesh out of the left arm.

She went immediately to Richmond to be treated. Mr. Hodges will go also. The colored boy went to Clifton Forge and had his wound burnt out.

The dog was killed by Mr. Jim Simmons, blacksmith, who was former owner.

Morphine Doctor Demented.

Morphine Doctor Demented.

(Speala to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., June 1.—Joe Wilcox, who was known as "Doctor" for a long time, because each mistered morphine to the men and women of the situns, was taken up on the streets yesterday and was committed to the interest yesterday and was committed to the streets yesterday and was committed from the would apply for work in the city, but he used his liberty to haunt the postolice to demand that the clerks there should deliver to him $10,000 which he knew was in the mails awalting his calls. He was a bright man and may have had some knowledge of medicine, but he is decrept dad probably demented now. This wife is a cripple and is at the almehouse. She, too, dispensed the drug.

Wagon Works Banquet. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., June 1.—In the United States District Court, in vacation, before Judge H. C. McDowell, the Taylor Wagon Works, of this city, which a short time ago recorded a general deed of assignment in the clerk's office of Campbell county Circuit Court, at Rustburg, with H. B. Percey trustee, has been on petition of crediors, represented by Thomas O'Brien and Don P. Halsey, adjudged bankrupt.

To-day the court appointed Mossrs, A. B. Percy and Thomas J. O'Brien as co-to-cean View and Norfolk.

receivers, to take charge of the property of the corporation until the appointment of a trustee. It is stated that the total liabilities of the company will amount to

Fredericksburg College.

Fredericksburg College.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FFDDERICKSBURG, VA., June 1.—

The closing exercises of Fredericksburg College commenced to night with the final college commenced to night with the final college hall, under the direction of Miss S. W. Epps. This will be followed by a musicale under the direction of Professor F. A. Franklin, on Friday night, a dramatic entertainment on Saturday night, a dramatic entertainment on Saturday night at the Presbyterian Church by Rev. Dr. T. R. English, of Richmond musicale on Monday night, address before the Literary Society by Rev. R. B. Eggleston, of Richmond, on Tuesday morning; celebration of the Literary Societies Tuesday night and the delivery of medals, diplomas, distinctions, etc., on Wedsnesday morning, which will close the session.

FINAL EXERCISES.

Bowling Green Female Seminary in Fine Condition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOWLING GREEN, VA., June 1.—The final exercises of Bowling Green Formale Semmary were held in Bullard's Hall last night. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. J. H. Light, of Fred-ericksburg, Va., in the Methodist Church ericksburg, Va., in the Methodist Church Sunday morning, given, and Dr. F. C. Woodward, of Richmond College, made the annual address on woman's work in life.

Wednesday night the senior concert was given, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, after which distinctions and diplomas in proficiency were awarded. Miss Ann Doswell, of Hanover county, was given a diploma as a literary graduate. Miss Annie Maury White, of this place, received a diploma as a rull graduate.

Major R. O. Peatross, chairman of the board of trustees, announced that the school was on a sound financial footing, and that its prospects were very bright. Although it was a school in the Methodist conference, it had never received any financial aid from it.

Spend Sunday

The Famous Dixie Beer

Old Dominion Brewing Co.

HENRY A. KRAMER, Manager.

FINE AS SILK. EVERYBODY TRY A GLASS.